Contemporary Chinese Political Economy and Strategic Relations: An International Journal

Notes for Contributors

Submission Notes

1. Contemporary Chinese Political Economy and Strategic Relations: An International Journal (CCPS) is a triannual academic journal jointly published by the Institute of China and Asia-Pacific Studies, National Sun Yat-sen University, Taiwan, and the Department of Administrative Studies and Politics, Faculty of Economics and Administration, University of Malaya, Malaysia. Contemporary political economy or political economics is an interdisciplinary field of social science that studies the interrelationship between political and economic processes, taking political science and economics as a unified subject. Manuscripts submitted for publication in CCPS should focus on the Chinese polity, economy and society, and the interrelationship between sociopolitical and socioeconomic factors that influence political, economic and social outcomes in contemporary Mainland China and Taiwan, as well as Hong Kong and Macau, and their political-economic, strategic relations with other regions and countries.

2. A manuscript submitted should be an original, unpublished work not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

3. All manuscripts under consideration for publication will be refereed via a double blind reviewing process.

4. The contents of a published article in Contemporary Chinese Political Economy and Strategic Relations: An International Journal (CCPS) reflect the view of the author or authors and not that of the editors of the journal or the publisher.

5. The journal does not accept responsibility for damage or loss of manuscripts submitted.

6. Manuscripts submitted should be written in English with Microsoft Word in Times New Roman font, size 12 and with 1.5 line spacing, and should not exceed forty pages (or in the case of a book review, not exceeding three pages) inclusive of tables, charts and diagrams, notes, list of references, and appendices. A short note on the author(s), including name(s), academic title(s) and highest qualification(s) (e.g., professor, senior lecturer, PhD, MSc, etc.), institutional affiliation(s) and e-mail address(es) should be included. An abstract of 100 to 250 words and a list of three to five keywords should also be given.

7. Contemporary Chinese Political Economy and Strategic Relations: An International Journal (CCPS) is an open access journal. Copyrights of accepted manuscripts are retained by the authors who grant CCPS a license to publish the articles and identify CCPS as the original publisher, and any third party the right to use the articles freely as long as their integrity is maintained and their original authors, citation details and publisher (CCPS) are identified. A PDF copy, but no print copy, of the published article is sent to the author(s) by email and can be downloaded at the journal website. CCPS encourages the free downloading and dissemination, electronically or in print, of the journal's papers or the full journal issues on the side of the authors, readers or libraries for reference and research purposes or for depositing in their respective personal or institutional repositories including websites and other professional or social media to promote public access.

8. Authors must obtain permission to reproduce all materials of which the copyright is owned by others, including tables, charts, diagrams and maps, and extensive quoting should be avoided.

9. Book review submitted should focus on new or recent publications, and the book title, author, city/publisher, year of publication and total number of pages (e.g., 266 pp. * xvi) should be shown above the review. Thematic special issue proposals are welcomed.

10. Manuscripts, book reviews and special issue proposals should be sent by e-mail to ccpsij@gmail.com and yeohkk@um.edu.my, addressed to the Editor of Contemporary Chinese Political Economy and Strategic Relations: An International Journal (CCPS).
