Arif Dirlik, Ph.D. (Rochester), lives in Eugene, Oregon, in semi-retirement. He was formerly Knight Professor of Social Science and Professor of History and Cultural Anthropology at the University of Oregon and Professor of History and Cultural Anthropology at Duke University. He was also formerly a Distinguished Visiting Fellow at the Peter Wall Institute for Advanced Studies, University of British Columbia, has held honorary appointments at China Center for Comparative Politics and Economics, Central Compilation and Translation Bureau, Beijing, the Center for the Study of Marxist Social Theory, Nanjing University, Northwest Nationalities University, Lanzhou, PRC, and has taught at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. Arif Dirlik is one of the most important critics writing at the nexus of globalization, postcolonial theory, historiography, Asia-Pacific Studies, and capital critique. He has published over fifteen books and numerous articles. His 1997 book The postcolonial aura: Third World criticism in the age of global capitalism (Westview) is a trenchant analysis and critique of postcolonial theory, and an assessment of its adequacy to the contemporary situation. After the revolution: Waking to global capitalism (Wesleyan, 1994) poses a similar set of challenges to Marxist theory, calling for a new set of oppositional practices and modes of critique that respond to the situation of a newly hegemonic global capitalism and the demise of the socialist states. Dirlik's other books include Places and politics in the age of global capital (ed. with Roxann Prazniak, Rowman and Littlefield, 2001), Postmodernity's histories: The past as legacy and project (Rowman and Littlefield, 2000), What is in a rim? Critical perspectives on the Pacific region idea (Westview, 1993), and Anarchism in the Chinese Revolution (University of California, 1991). His works have been translated into Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Turkish, Bulgarian, French, German, Portuguese, and Spanish. In Fall 2010, Dirlik served as the first Liang Qichao Memorial Distinguished Visiting Professor at Tsinghua University, Beijing. In Fall 2011, he held the Rajni Kothari Chair in Democracy at the Centre for the Study of Developing Societies in Delhi, India. Dirlik serves on the editorial boards of over ten periodicals in Chinese, Asian and cultural studies, and is the editor of two book series, "Studies in global modernity", with the State University of New York Press, and "Asian modernities" with the Chinese University of Hong Kong Press. His various recent book-length publications include Selected works of Arif Dirlik (2010, in Turkish), Snapshots of intellectual life in contemporary China (2008, special issue of boundary 2), Pedagogies of the global (2007), Global modernity: Modernity in the age of global capitalism, and two edited volumes, The formation and indigenization of the disciplines in China: Sociology and anthropology and The end of the peasant? Global capitalism and the future of agrarian society. His other publications in English include Revolution and history: Origins of Marxist historiography in China, 1991-1937, Origins of Chinese Communism; Marxism in the Chinese Revolution, Schools into fields and factories: Anarchists, the Guomindang and the Labor University in Shanghai, 1927-1932, and recently, Culture and history in postrevolutionary China: The perspective of global modernity. Dirlik was born in Mersin, Turkey, in 1940. He has a B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Robert College (now Bosphorus University) in Istanbul and a Ph.D. in History from the University of Rochester, Rochester, NY. <Email: dirlikster@gmail.com>

Steven Chung Fun Hung 洪松勳, Ph.D. (TSU), serves The Education University of Hong Kong (formerly The Hong Kong Institute of Education) as an Assistant Professor and he achieves his performance in the domains of scholarships, professional research, and publications. He is honoured to have been recognized for attaining excellence in the realm of research outputs and publications, skillful and effective teaching of pedagogical courses, and diligently fulfilling the University/Institute's duties and serving the community in a highly devoted and accessible manner. His publications have been exceptional, both in terms of quantity and quality, and internationally and regionally referred.
